The Engineer-in-Chief (AW), Irrigation & CAD Department, Hyderabad, in the reference 1st read above, has reported that Sri K. Ramanjaneyulu, AEE (now DEE) in his representation dt. 4.1.2008 has requested to issue necessary orders for counting the E.O.L. period on medical grounds for increments. He has further reported that Sri K. Ramanjaneyulu, AEE (now DEE) while working in HLC Division, Anantapur has availed leave from 5.4.2002 to 11.11.2003 duly applying leave in different spells, stating that he is suffering from Lumber Disc Syndrome with Sciatica. The individual was joined in HNSS Circle, Anantapur on 12.11.2003 vide ENC Procs.dt.6.11.2003, pending initiation of disciplinary action. Subsequently, articles of charges were served on him for his unauthorized absence vide ENC procs dt.8.9.2006 and accordingly, the SE, TBP Circle, Anantapur was appointed as Enquiry Officer. The enquiry officer has submitted his report on 5.3.2007 opining that it is a fact that the AEE has submitted the leave applications along with medical certificates from time to time and not neglected his duty willfully and due to ill health only, he was on leave and recommended for dropping of further action against the AEE as a special case and to consider his application for sanction of leave as requested by the individual. Based on the Enquiry Report, the medical and fitness certificates of Sri K. Ramanjanyulu, AEE were sent to the Medical Board in District Head Quarters Hospital, Anantapur with a request to furnish its opinion. The Medical Board, Govt. General Hospital, Anantapur has opined that the candidate is fit for duty now and as per the investigations and records provided he appears to have suffered from Lumbar Disc Syndrome. Accordingly, the ENC(AW) has dropped further action against the individual and treated the absence period as leave on private affairs. Further, the individual has requested for counting the EOL period, which was regularized, for increments. Finally, the ENC(AW) has proposed to consider it at Govt. level. As per the records produced by the Engineer-in-Chief (AW), Irrigation

& CAD Department, Hyderabad, it is fact that the above A.E.E. has submitted the leave applications along with medical certificates from time to time and the Enquiry Officer has also opined that the officer has not neglected his duty willfully and due to ill health only, he was on leave. Further the Medical Board has also opined that the candidate is fit for duty now and as per the investigations and records provided, he appears to have suffered from Lumbar Disc Syndrome. As such, the action taken by the ENC(AW) in having sanctioned the leave from 5.4.2002 to 11.11.2003 (586 days) on private affairs is not in accordance with rules and facts of records and deserves to be set-aside.

2. Government, after careful examination of the matter, has decided to set aside the proceedings No.Rc/ENC/VC2/ 32748/2003 dated 31-08-2007 issued by the Engineer-in-Chief (AW), Hyderabad and to regularize the period of leave from 05-04-2002 to 11-11-2003 availed by Sri K. Ramanjaneyulu, Asst. Executive Engineer, (now Dy.E.E.) treating, as leave availed on medical grounds, for the purpose of increments, under F.R.26 (b) (ii).

3. Accordingly, Government hereby set aside the proceedings No.Rc/ENC/VC2/32748/2003 dated 31-08-2007 issued by the Engineer-in-Chief (AW), Hyderabad and regularize the period of leave from 05-04-2002 to 11-11-2003 availed by Sri K. Ramanjaneyulu, Asst. Executive Engineer (now Dy.E.E.) as leave availed on medical grounds, for the purpose of increments as per Fundamental Rule 26.

4. The Engineer-in-Chief (AW), Hyderabad is requested to take necessary action in the matter.

5. The Service Register of the individual in one bound volume is herewith enclosed which may be acknowledged.
